

The committee has filed an amended Statement of Organization and the candidate has filed an amended Statement of Candidacy, both indicating no congressional district. These filings will be amended at a later date to indicate a congressional district.
